

On May 16, General Electric announced a recall of certain dishwashers manufactured between 1997 and 2001. Beazer may have installed one of the models in your home. Apparently the rinse aid dispenser is causing fires.

For more information you can go the following website:

<http://www.geappliances.com/products/recall>